

Curriculum Vitae Jerome Edmond Bickenbach, PhD, LLB

Education

1978 – Present	Member of the Bar of Ontario
1981	LL.B. Faculty of Law, University of Toronto, Toronto, Canada
1977	Ph.D. Department of Philosophy, University of Alberta, Edmonton, Canada
1975 – 1976	Research Student (M.A. Status), University of Cambridge, Cambridge, UK
1973	Master of Philosophy, University of Alberta, Edmonton, Canada
1970	Bachelor of Philosophy, State University of California, San Jose, USA

Employment History

2018 - Present	Co-director, Center for Rehabilitation in Global Health Systems (WHO Collaborating Center), University of Lucerne, Lucerne, Switzerland
2008 – Present	Permanent Visiting Professor, Department of Health Sciences and Medicine, University of Lucerne, Lucerne, Switzerland
2005 – Present	Group Leader, Disability and Policy Unit, Swiss Paraplegic Research (SPF), Nottwil, Switzerland
1993 – Present	Professor, Department of Philosophy, Queen's University, Kingston, Canada
1993 – Present	Professor, Faculty of Law, Queen's University, Kingston, Canada

Institutional Responsibility

2018 – Present	Co-director, Center for Rehabilitation in Global Health Systems, University of Lucerne, Lucerne, Switzerland
----------------	--

Consultancies

2014 – Present	Consultant, World Bank Group: Disability Assessment
2014 – Present	Consultant, WHO: International Practices on Assistive Technology
2010 – Present	Consultant, Swedish Centre for Disability Studies, Orebro, Sweden, September
2009 – Present	Consultant, Centre for Disability Law and Policy, Galway, Ireland, June
2007 – Present	Scientist, World Health Organization, Disability and Rehabilitation
2004 – 2005	Consultant to Ministry of Social Welfare, Government of Italy and Disability Italian Network, ICF Training Material
2003	Consultant to Ministry of Labour, Social Solidarity and Family, National Authority for Persons with Handicap, Bucharest, Romania

Approved Research Projects

2019 – 2023	DARE, (Disability Advocacy Research in Europe), Marie Curie, joint Doctorate programme.
2017 – 2021	NRP74 “Smarter Health Care”. Project title: “Enhancing continuous quality improvement and supported clinical decision making by standardized reporting of functioning”. Swiss National Science Foundation. (Co-investigator)
2015 – 2016	Schweizerische Akademie der Medizinischen Wissenschaften: Developing performance and accountability indicators in disability rehabilitation: A concept mapping study. (Principal Investigator, SPF)
2015 – 2019	ATHLOS : Ageing Trajectories of Health : Longitudinal Opportunities and Synergies. H2020-PHC-2014.(Principle Investigator)

- 2015 – 2020 AGE-WELL, Aging Gracefully across Environments Using Technology for Wellness, Engagement, and Long Life. National Centre of Excellence, Government of Canada, WP8: Ethical, Cultural, and Social Aspects of Technology. (Workpackage Co-leader, SPF)
- 2013 – 2016 Active citizenship: Social inclusion and participation of persons with disabilities in Switzerland. Swiss National Science Foundation. (Principle Investigator, SPF)
- 2012 – 2015 DISCIT: Making Persons with Disabilities Full Citizens – New Knowledge for an Inclusive and Sustainable European Social Model. FP7- SSH.2012.3.2.-2. Understanding disabilities in evolving societies, with NOVA, Norway. (Principal Investigator, SPF)

Teaching Activities

- 2013 – Present Blockcourse “Human Functioning Sciences”, University of Lucerne, Lucerne

Memberships in panels, boards, etc., and individual scientific reviewing activities

- 2018 – Present Reviewer, Marie Curie Programme, European Commission

Active Memberships in scientific societies, fellowships in renowned academies

- 2005 – Present Member, ICF Research Branch, at Swiss Paraplegic Research (SPF), Nottwil, Switzerland